

I write as I am opposed to these rule changes as I understand them. Rules need to be put in place to serve the American people, not corporate interests. Further media consolidation threatens the multiple voice of American democracy.

I urge you in the strongest terms to retain the current ownership rules.